Rules of Conduct for Students

1. Students must come to class on time. If you are late for more than 15 minutes, your parent needs to take you to class directly and talk with your teacher.
2. If you will be absent, please have your parent call or write a note for your teacher or the office. If you are absent two times consecutively without any excuse from your parent, you will not be allowed to continue class at Van-Lang. If you need to leave early, please have a note written by your parent and have your parent comes to class to pick you up.
3. Please dress appropriately when come to class: no ripped jeans, short shorts, tank tops, or revealing clothes. Be respectful to your teachers and security guards, members of the PTA, and other students.
4. Students are not allowed to stay in classrooms during recess when teachers are not present. For safety, do not wander off outside of the school's campus during recess. Furthermore, do not run on the grass, chase each other to avoid falls and accidents.
6. No weapons are allowed in the school's vicinity and classroom. These include but are not limited to sharp objects, explosives, lighters, and guns. Also, no recreational drugs are allowed in the school's vicinity and classroom. If violate, law enforcement will be notified.
7. Students must complete classroom works and homework and participate in school's events and activities.
8. Please keep the classrooms and school clean. No food or soft drinks allowed in the classroom. Also, please do not move desks, tables, chairs, and school supplies in the classroom without your teacher's approval.
9. Students must be respectful and listen to your teachers. If you show disrespect, you will receive a warning and parents will be contacted. Repeating offenses are subject to suspended and expelled.
10. Any violation to these rules here are subject to disciplinary. If a student has violated the rules three times, he or she will be expelled from the school.

 Note for parents: Students need to be picked up right after school. Vanlang will not be responsible for your children's safety if they are not picked up.*

 These rules are in place to prevent unfortunate things from happening to our children and staff. We ask parents to inform these rules to your children and work with us to enforce these rules.*
